Japan Engineer District visits JGSDF Engineer School

CAMP KATSUTA, JAPAN – U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Japan District Colonel Bryan Truesdell is greeted by Japan Ground Self Defense Force, Engineer School Commandant Major General Masafumi Akamatsu at Camp Katsuta, Ibaraki Prefecture Aug. 31. Japan District and the JGSDF Engineer School continue to build on a relationship that has existed more than five years, learning about respective missions. U.S. Army personnel practiced Japanese calligraphy, made soba noodles and learned about JGSDF contribution to United Nation Peacekeeping operations. They also enjoyed refreshments with 15 engineer students. At left is Daniel Reese from U.S. Army, Japan G5 (Host Nation Affairs Office) and Captain Thomas Douglas from USACE Japan District. 110831-A-BJ894-001.
