

NEWS RELEASE

U.S. ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS

BUILDING STRONG®

#3-608-11
For Immediate Release:
June 8, 2011

Contact:
Satoshi Oka
satoshi.oka@usace.army.mil

BLDG 341 RENOVATIONS COMPLETE

CAMP ZAMA, JAPAN – On May 31, a ribbon cutting ceremony was held at Georgia Hall, Bldg 341 on Camp Zama. The ceremony concluded a 15 month project which turned shared barracks rooms into single rooms and additional cooking appliances. The renovation also includes a new entertainment room where soldiers can enjoy the latest electronic games and watch movies. Photo from left: Spec. Robert Mathews, Akira Sabo, Nippo Corporation, CSM Scarlett Stabel, USAG-J, Col. Perry Helton, USAG-J Commander, MSgt. Kevin Jenkins, George Cardenas, Project Engineer, Theresa Adams, DPW, Chief, Housing Management Division.

U.S. ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS – JAPAN DISTRICT

USAED-J Unit 40510
APO, AP 96338-5010