

CEPOD-EP

Regulation
No. 690-1-17

22 November 1989

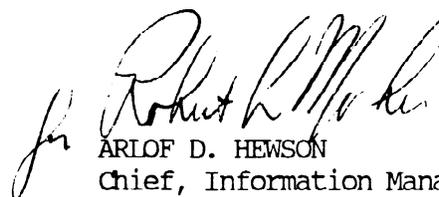

Civilian Personnel
COMPETITIVE AREAS - REDUCTION-IN-FORCE

1. PURPOSE. To define the geographic boundaries of competitive areas for reduction-in-force purposes within the Pacific Ocean Division (POD), U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.
2. APPLICABILITY. This regulation applies to all US civilian employees assigned to POD.
3. REFERENCES:
  - a. ER 690-1-351
  - b. AR 690-300 Chapter 351
  - c. FPM Chapter 351
  - d. Appropriate Civilian Personnel Servicing Agreement
4. Due to the geographical location, differences in tours of duty, environment, living and working conditions, the following areas are designated as separate competitive areas for POD employees for reduction-in-force purposes:

Geographic Area	Organizational Element	Appointing Officer
a. State of Hawaii	HQ POD and HED Personnel Located in the State of Hawaii	Division Engineer
b. Marshall	Kwajalein Resident Office Personnel	Division Engineer
c. Guam	POD Personnel Located in Guam	Division Engineer
d. Japan	Japan District Personnel Located in Japan proper	Japan District Engineer
e. Okinawa	Okinawa Area Office and other JED Personnel Located in Okinawa	Japan District Engineer
f. Korea	Far East District Personnel Located in Korea	Far East District Engineer
g. Thailand	Udon Resident Office Personnel	Division Engineer

5. Competitive areas for local national employees will be governed by local command regulations.

FOR THE COMMANDER:

ARLOF D. HEWSON

Chief, Information Management Office

DISTRIBUTION: (List 89-1)
B, C